

International Symposium „Progress in treatment of manure and digestate“

Participation fee

|                   |       |
|-------------------|-------|
| Day ticket        | 180 € |
| 2 days conference | 290 € |
| Evening reception | 35 €  |

Simultaneous translation (German / English), beverages and lunch during the conference days are included. All prices plus VAT. Members of GERBIO get a discount of 20 %.

Registration & entry conditions

You will receive a confirmation and an invoice by e-mail after your registration. We expect receipt of your payment in advance to the conference. The payment of the participation fee must be made in Euro. In case of written cancellation until January 31, 2010 the fee minus a service charge of EUR 50 (plus VAT) will be refunded. There will be no refund in case of cancellation after January 31, 2010 and no refund will be granted if the participant does not appear at the conference (even in case of illness), but it is possible to announce a substitute participant to the organiser. If the organiser has to cancel the conference the full participation fee will be refunded. All further claims are excluded.

We cannot guarantee your participation without full registration including the payment of the fee. For advance payment we offer the option of bank transfer. You will receive the necessary information with your confirmation and invoice. Credit cards are not accepted.
